THE ALBERT PIKE MONUMENT.

Council for the northern jurisdiction of the United States. At its conclusion Mr. Richardson briefly expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him and pledged himself anew to the welfare of the craft. Mr. Palmer was then presented by Sena-tor Henry M. Teller of Colorado, on behalf of the Supreme Courcil, with a massive silver loving cup, lined with gold and appropriately inscribed. The recipient expressed his thanks in warm terms. A brief address on Scottish Rite Masonry was made by Mr. Frederick Webber, secretary general, and after the several convention com-mittees had reported progress the council adjourned until today.

DELIGHTFUL BANQUET.

Royal Order of Scotland Entertains Large Number of Guests. The handsome banquet hall of the new Willard's on the top floor was appropriately dedicated last night with the banquet of the Royal Order of Lcotland. The large apartment was beautifully decorated with flowers which heightened effectively the permanent embellishments. The menu cards bore reproductions of the insignia of the order and were artistically executed. Upon the back page appeared the names of the officers. J. H. Drummond of Portland, Maine, the grand master, presided and at his right was Senor Rapael de Zeyas Enri-quez, ambassador from the supreme coun-cil of Mexico.

When the coffee was reached Mr. Drum-mond called several guests for remarks, in-cluding Grand Commander Richardson, Nr. Hugh McCurdy of Michigan, Mr. Allison Nallor, jr., Rev. Franklin B. Adkins of Maryland, Mrs. William Oscar Roome, daughter of the late Albert Pike; Mr. Frank H. Hosford and Senor Enriquez. The witty flashes were much enjoyed.

DETECTIVE SERGEANT PRIM SHOT. Was One of President's Guards at Last Inauguration.

Word was today received at police headquarters that Detective Sergeant Calvin Prim of Cincinnati, who, with Detectives Miller and Peck of this city, and McDermott of the former city, were the body guard of President McKinley at his last inauguration, was shot and, it is feared, mortally wounded by one John Foley in Cincinnati Monday. At the time of the shooting Prim was on his way to headquarters to go on duty. He met Foley, who was wanted for an alleged crime, and placed him under arrest. In an instant Foley whipped out a revolver and fired two bullets into the sergeant's side. The unfortunate officer is regarded as one of the best detectives in the country and was frequently detailed to guard President McKinley during his trips in Pensylvania and ey during his trips in Pennsylvania and Improvements at Fort Washington. A number of the new buildings in course of construction at the Fort Washington artillery post are nearly completed and will be ready to turn over to Major Bickham the constructing quartermaster, in a week or ten days. Among these buildings are the post hospital and non-commissioned of ficers' quarters. Both are fine buildings, modern in every respect, with all ap-pliances for the comfort and convenience of the soldiers.

The hospital is a large, well-lighted building, and is arranged according to modern sanitary ideas for the treatment of the sick.

Mr. W. H. McCray of this city, the con-

Mr. W. H. McCray of this city, the contractor for this work, has also completed a large coal storage building and oil house at the fort.

In consequence of the increase in the force stationed at Fort Washington, quarters for the officers ordered there have been very scarce, and the buildings within the old stone walls of the fort are being fitted up for the use of the junior officers. Fort About 8 o'clock this morning Abraham Phillip, a huckster, living in Essex court northwest, was run over by a horse and carriage driven by an unknown colored man at the corner of 15th and P streets northwest. Phillip's ear was severely cut and he was removed to the Emergency Hosnital in a carriage for treatment.
